

Jinx Falkenburg Appears On Hope Program Tuesday

Jinx Falkenburg, cover gal, tennis enthusiast and screen lovely, will accompany Bob Hope and his gang to the Army Air Forces base at Yuma, Ariz., for the broadcast Tuesday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EST.)

The murder of a butcher friend of Dusty Miller's involves Steve Wilson, managing editor of the Illustrated Press, and his star reporter Lorelei Kilbourne in a gruesome and exciting episode of adventure against the black market. How

Dusty Miller picks up a clue to the murderer and tries to find him without the help of the police will be told on the "Big Town" program, Tuesday, at 7 p. m., EST, over WABC. Edward Pawley and Fran Carlton co-star as "Steve Wilson" and "Lorelei Kilbourne."

Sgt. Norman Goodwin, of Bradford Mass., recently repatriated from a Nazi prison camp will be Quentin Reynolds' guest on "Salute to Youth" Tuesday (NBC 7:30 p. m., EST.)

Kay Kyser's visit to the Burns home will give Gracie a wonderful idea for "Tootsie Sagwell's" Christmas present on the Tuesday airing of the George Burns and Gracie Allen radio show over WABC at 8 p. m., EST.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 14

THIS BEAR MAY HAVE LEARNED ABOUT LAZARUS

BROCKAWAY, Pa., Dec. 14 —(AP)—Here's a bear that may have heard of Lazarus.

Three Brookville (Pa.) hunters driving back to camp in their car hit a bear which had crossed their path. The hunters—thinking the bear dead—picked him up and threw him in the rear of the car.

However, the bear revived in a few minutes whereupon the hunter, who sat beside him, broke all existing records for jumping out of an automobile. His companions followed suit with the driver stopping the car and locking the bear in.