

Bill Frawley To Guest On Bing Crosby Program

Bill Frawley, whom Bing Crosby calls, "my friend and a friend of all my friends," will join Nan Wynn in the guest-department of the Crosby program on Thursday.

Such luminaries as the Charioteers and John Scott Trotter and his orchestra will also be in the precincts for the broadcast over WEAJ at 8 p. m., EST.

Heated words supply the only warmth to the Aldrich menage when Henry tries over-zealously to make a saving in fuel in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAJ on Thursday at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Daddy's New Year resolution that he will never lose his temper goes the way of all flesh when Baby Snooks drives him to the point of distraction in the hilarious half-hour Thursday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EST.)

Charlie Ruggles is the first visitor to try to elude Joan Davis in 1944 when he drops in at the village store Thursday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m., EST). The over-suffering Jack Haley, too, will be on hand for his first program of the New Year.

Judy Canova, pigtailed, hog-calling and all, will find Abbott and Costello running to her side every time she opens her mouth when she guests on the comedians' broadcast Thursday over WEAJ at 9 p. m., EST.
