

Laird Cregar To Portray Dr. Jekyll And Mr. Hyde

A four-star version of Robert Louis Stevenson's classic horror tale, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," with slick movie menace Laird Cregar as guest star and Paul Douglas in his regular role of "Pay-Master of Ceremonies," will feature the "Star for a Night" broadcast over WJZ Wednesday at 9:30 p. m., EST.

Joan Bennett will be the visiting celebrity on the Frank Sinatra program Wednesday at 8 p. m., EST, over WABC. Bert Wheeler, Frankie's comedian side-kick, will vie with The Voice for the dark-tressed screen star's attentions.

Soldiers stationed at Camp Haan, Calif., get their opportunity to carry their suppressed desires into action, when Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" crew head for that camp for the broadcast of Wednesday at 9 p. m., over Station WEAJ. Adding to the soldiers' entertainment will be the Kyser orchestra, with Georgia Carroll, Harry Babbitt, Sully Mason, Ish Kabibble, and the program's new announcer, Bill Forman, who succeeds Verne Smith, now in the Army.

William E. Hall, 24-year-old Coast Guardsman from Cheboygan, Mich., who is credited with saving the lives of four men while serving under fire at Gaudalcanal, will be the serviceman hero on the Monty Woolley - Sammy Kaye show, Wednesday. Marie Wilson will be the visiting guest star on the half-hour show heard regularly at 7 p. m., EST over WABC.
