

Hedy Lamarr Stars In "Casablanca" Monday

"Casablanca," starring Hedy Lamarr, Alan Ladd, Ernest ("Cabin in the Sky") Whitman and John Loder will be aired Monday at 8 p. m. EST over WABC. This program, originally scheduled for Jan. 17 was postponed for the inauguration of the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Vox Pop, one of radio's most effective ~~war~~ shows, traveling America to bring listeners on-the-spot interviews with self-sacrificing men and women fighting to defeat the enemy, will be in New Haven, Conn., center of small arms manufacture, for the Monday broadcast. Paiks Johnson and Warren Hull will take their microphone into the huge gun and ammunition plant of Winchester Repeating Arms Co., and will be on WABC at 7 p. m., EST. with skilled employes producing the famous Garand rifle, and who originated and developed the sensational U. S. Carbine, mighty midget of World War II.

Pat O'Brien, Ruth Warrick and Robert Ryan share the spotlight, when the "Screen Guild Players" present "The Iron Major," based on the life of Major Cavanaugh, famed Fordham football coach, on Monday at 9 p. m. over WABC.

Ezio Pinza, Metropolitan Opera basso, is joined by two younger Met singers, Soprano Christina Carroll and Tenor Donald Dame, as guests on the "Great Artists Series" Monday, over WEAJ at 8 p. m., EST. Both Miss Carroll and Donald Dame were received with critical praise when they made their debuts at the Metropolitan this season. Pinza's triumphs are legion and will be repeated the same week as his appearance with the singing of his famous "Don Giovanni" at the opera.

HOLD EVERYTHING

"Second floor, please! Pick-pockets, drunks and swindlers!"

GERMAN ATTACK ON ATLANTIC CONVOY ROUTED

LONDON, Jan. 24—(AP)—An attack on an Atlantic convoy by