

Irene Dunne Will Star In Jack London Story

Irene Dunne will be the star of an original Arch Oboler dramatization of a Jack London story on WEAF's "Everything for the Boys," Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., EST.

Because so many requests came from servicemen for a Jack London story, Oboler selected one of the author's little known tales, "Lady of the House," on which to base his dramatization.

Hertha Glaz, internationally noted mezzo-soprano, and John Dudley, tenor, will be the soloists in a program of operatic music to be heard on "Metropolitan Opera, USA" over WJZ Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., EST. The program features Josef Stopak as conductor of a concert orchestra.

Having milked nearly every other angle, Ed "Archie" Gardner will make a new hit for recognition as a song-writer when he calls in Paul Whiteman and Deems Taylor to help him wangle membership to ASCAP, during the "Duffy's" broadcast, Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

"Wilkie, the bad wittle boy" will be up to his old pranks Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday, when "the brat" turns on his own peculiar brand of humor in the person of Red Skelton for WEAF listeners.

HOLD EVERYTHING

