

Bob Hope Will Play For Marine Raiders

The Marine Raiders training at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif., will have the chance of ogling Bob Hope and the pleasure of sighing at Ginger Rogers when the NBC comedian takes his troupe there for the broadcast Tuesday, at 3 p. m., EST.

Major Edward Bowes, radio's renowned talent impressario, making a rarer-than-rare guest appearance, drops in for a visit with Ed "Archie" Gardner and the gang at "Duffy's" on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., EST over WJZ.

Judy finds herself singularly dateless, and does something about it, in "The Cedric Hillsborough Hoax," the merry tale to be heard on "A Date With Judy," on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., EST, over Station WFAF.

She uses her position as society editor of the school paper to promote a fictitious romance . . . and before long she's face to face with the young man in question. The situation resolves itself amusingly. Louise Erickson is heard as Judy, with Dix Davis as her brother, Randolph.

The "Switch Board" successful gag writers Pat C. Flick, Sid Fields, Dora Maugham and Dan Shapiro, will rip into jokes contributed to the "Awake at the Switch" program by Laird "Jack the Ripper" Cregar during a WJZ broadcast, Tuesday, at 6 p. m., EST.

NEW KNOXVILLE MAN TO SPEAK

WAPAKONETA, Feb. 8.—Rev. George Smith, pastor of nearby New Knoxville Methodist church, will be guest speaker at the bi-monthly meeting of the Shelby-Auglaize Methodist Lay Activities group to be held Tuesday evening at Anna.

"Religious Significance of Geology," will be the theme of Rev. Smith's address. Rev. L. D. Fauver of New Hampshire also will appear on the program which is being arranged by Rev. T. C. Davis of Jackson Center; Rev. P. F. Fox of Port Jefferson and Rev. J. Williamson, pastor of the host church. Special music for the occasion will be furnished by choir
