

Tonight's Aces Variety

7 p. m.—Baby Snooks (WIBA): continues her trip to Hollywood.

8 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA): Bing Crosby with Mischa Auer; music, "September Song," "Shoo, Shoo Baby," "Poinciana," and "Mairzy Doats."

8:30 p. m.—Joan Davis (WIBA): and Basil Rathbone . . . Dinah Shore Program (WBBM): Wally Brown shows Dinah the wonders of the beach; "Sleepy Time Gal," "Candlelight and Wine," "Besame Mucho," and "Get On Board Little Chillun."

9 p. m.—Abbott and Costello (WIBA): with Charles Laughton.

Music

6 p. m.—Fred Waring (WIBA): tunes for men of the FBI.

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Bob Chester . . . Treasure Hour of Song (WGN): "Furiant" from "The Bartered Bride;" "Czardas" from "Countess Maritza;" "The Donkey Serenade;" "Pari Siamo" from "Rigoletto;" and Schubert's "Serenade."

9:30 p. m.—Here's to Romance (WBBM): "Beyond the Blue Horizon," Gould's "Pavanne," "Sometimes I'm Happy," "Tea for Two," "Speak to Me of Love."

Discussion

7 p. m.—Confidentially Yours (WGN): Arthur Hale reveals why Dewey must run this year and not wait until 1948 if he hopes for the presidency.

7:30 p. m.—America's Town Meeting (WLS): "How Should Axis War Leaders Be Tried?" Speakers, Samuel Grafton, commentator; Emil Ludwig, biographer; and Louis Nizer, author and attorney.

9:15 p. m.—Dale Carnegie (WGN): tells little known facts about Abraham Lincoln.

9:30 p. m.—Lincoln Day Address (WMAQ): Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio speaks at Republican dinner, Washington, D. C.

Miscellaneous

8:55 p. m.—Storyteller (WENR): "The Drummer," a story of percussion and its relation to one of the most valued tools in medicine.

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Hollywood Theater (WTMJ): Jane Withers in "Young Lady Be Good."

7 p. m.—Suspense (WBBM): Charles Ruggles in Dorothy L. Sayres' "Suspicion," story of a servant believed to be a poisoner.

BASIL RATHBONE
WIBA at 8:30

7:30 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WBBM): tale of western gambler who turned preacher after attending a Gospel tent meeting, "Hell Fire or the Gospel" . . . Aldrich Family (WIBA): Henry has trouble buying a valentine. . . Human Adventure (WGN): dramatization of activities of Populist party in 1890.

9 p. m.—First Line (WBBM): story of "The Chincoteague," seaplane tender, told by Comdr. Ira E. Hobbs.

9:15 p. m.—Out of the Shadows (WENR): "A Voice from Norway."

Fridaytime

9:45 a. m.—The Listening Post (WLS): dramatization of magazine story, "You've Got to Live With People," starring Everett Sloane and Ethel Owen.

11 a. m.—U. S. Anniversary (WHA): 95th anniversary event at University of Wisconsin, held Feb. 8, with Maj. Richard Knobloch, Tokio raid pilot, and university chorus.

2:30 p. m.—This Living World (WBBM): "Victory on Wheels," discussion by high school students.

3 p. m.—Broadway Matinee (WBBM): Victoria Cordova, guest singer.

4:30 p. m.—Malcolm Claire (WENR): Narrates "Lincoln Pardon to a Soldier."

4:45 p. m.—American Women (WBBM): salute to first anniversary of women marines; story of Pfc. Ethel Dykes, Birmingham, Ala., driver of mail truck at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif.

5:15 p. m.—To Your Good Health (WBBM): Burlie Ives, singer of American folk songs and old English balads; chorus, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and "America the Beautiful."