

Betty Hutton Bombshell's Cantor Show Wednesday

Betty Hutton, the Blond Bombshell, releases some ~~put-up energy~~ in a delayed appearance on Eddie Cantor's "Time To Smile" show, Wednesday over WEAF at 8 p. m., EST.

Miss Hutton, slated for a bout with Cantor last Jan. 12, was forced to withdraw at the last minute because of illness. Bert "Mad Hatter" Gordon will enter the fray with Harry von Zell, and Nora Martin is to sing to the accompaniment of "Cooke" Fairchild's orchestra.

An American family comes in on an exchange ship from Japan, and immediately runs into complications involving mysterious raids on their child's toy shelves, in "The Case of the Stolen Doll," which come up for solution in "Mr. District Attorney," on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over station WEAF. Japanese agents have a hand in the proceedings, which provide many a thrill before "Mr. District Attorney" finds the key to the situation. Jay Jostyn, Vicki Vola and Len Doyle star in this series.
