

Louis Prima To Be Guest With Million Dollar Band

The "Standing Room Only" sign will be dusted off and hung up at The Million Dollar Band studio Saturday at 9 p. m., EST, over WEAF, when Louis Prima, trumpet king of the downbeat, visits this program as guest performer. Prima will display the brand of hot and rhythmic tempo that has made his orchestra a standout thru the years. Orson Welles and Groucho Marx engage in heated discussion of high rent and lease terms, when Orson visits Groucho in "Blue Ribbon Town," on Saturday at 7 p. m. over station WABC. Leo "Dead End" Gorcey complicates matters when he enters into the negotiations. Bill! Days, tenor, offers as his solo the new Frank Loesser song, "Spring Will Be a Little Late," and Fay McKenzie signs Besame Mucho." Robert Armbruster conducts the orchestra.

Gladys Swarthout, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, radio and movies, screen star Laird Cregar, and popular singer Perry Como will be guests on the "What's New?" show, Saturday, at 6 p. m., EST, over WJZ. The full-hour show features Metropolitan baritone Leonard Warren and Comedian "Archie" Gardner who will replace Cy Howard in the tag department.

How smoke gets in the eyes of the enemy . . . and wins a battle . . . is told in a drama of a mortar that fires smoke shells, "Goon Gun," on the "Army Service Forces Present," on Saturday, at 9:15 p. m., over station WJZ. Lt. Col. William Slater narrates the story, and Capt. Harry Salter conducts the Army orchestra heard on the show.

Ernest Tubb returns from the Hollywood movie lots to the "Grand Ole Opry," in the broadcast on Saturday, at 9:30 p. m., over station WEAF. He'll croon and play "You Nearly Lose Your Mind," one of his most popular numbers.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

2:00—Roy Shield and Company—the
Of Men & Books, Prof. Beadstick