

Macdonald Will New Radio Show

The Music America Loves Best." conductor Jay screen and opera soprano and Victor Red Seal Macdonald in two of her most popular songs
"Mystery of Life" and "One Kiss." The half-hour show over the airwaves Saturday at 6:30 p. m., ready of the theatre, now starting on Broadway in "Harriet," will appeal to the nation for support of the American Red Cross 1944 War Fund when she broadcasts as a guest amateur detective on Ellery Queen's "Adventures of the Red Cross," Saturday, at 6:30 p. m., EST over WEAJ.

Old-timers on the show, two popular Southern square dance bands, George Wilkerson's Fruit Jar Drinkers and Eddie Arnold's Tennessee Plowboys, both return for a guest appearance at the "Grand Ole Opry" on Saturday at 9:30 p. m., over station WEAJ.

"Triple Duty," a story of the varied assignments of the Military Police branch of the Army Service Forces, will be dramatized on "The Army Service Forces Present," Saturday at 9:15 p. m., over station WJZ. Taken from actual military records, "Triple Duty" tells of a group of MPs in Italy, who finish directing placement of war materiel during a landing under fire, then go on to pick up a group of prisoners.