

Benny Will Broadcast From Hollywood Sunday

Full of exuberance over his week in San Francisco entertaining servicemen in hospitals and camps, Jack Benny brings his gang back to the Hollywood home grounds for the broadcast Sunday, over WEAF at 6 p. m., EST.

Exhibiting the field of show business in its customary inclusive fashion, the "Radio Hall of Fame" will present the diverse talents of Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Larry Adler, Ralph Edwards and the "Truth and Consequences" gang, and Ella Logan over WJZ Sunday at 5 p. m., EST.

With Francis Lederer playing opposite her, Gertrude Lawrence will present "Rebecca" as the "Revlon Theatre" vehicle to be heard over WJZ Sunday at 9 p. m., EST.

Spring is welcomed with lilting melody by Maestro Phil Spitalny and his all-girl orchestra on the "Hour of Charm" Sunday, over WEAF at 9 p. m., EST.

Strauss' "Voices of Spring," by the orchestra and chorus, opens the program, followed by lovely Soprano Vivien singing Bishop's "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark." The orchestra is heard again in Padilla's "Who'll Buy My Violets," and the choir sings "Suddenly It's Spring," by Van Heusen.

Hex marks the spot when Harry of the Evil Eye starts a hilarious chain of events that winds up with a severe case of measles and murder on "The Adventures of the Thin Man" Sunday over WABC at 9:30 p. m., EST.
