"Blondie's Son Grows Older," and Blondie and Dagwood face an entirely new set of problems, on Monday, at 6:30 p. m. over Station WABC. Penny Singleton stars as Blondie, with Arthur Lake as Dagwood and Tommy Cook as Alexander.

Cecil B. DeMille will present "Phantom Lady," the strange and suspense-filled drama of a paranoiac killer on his program Monday at 8 p. m., EST, over WABC. Ella Raines, Alan Curtis and Brian Aherne play the leading roles.

A lovely young secretary, Carol Richman, played by Ella Raines, is plunged into the danger of a weird chase when her boss Scott Henderson (Alan Curtis) is accused of murdering his wife. Brian Aherne, as Jack Marlow, a close friend of the accused man has a personal interest in the verdict.

Cole Porter's newest hit, "I Love You," will be played in a special arrangement by the two-piano team of Saidenberg and Rebner on the Monday broadcast of "Top of the Evening," Monday at 9:15 p. m., EST.

The title tune of Broadway's top musical, "Oklahoma," will be the offering of the Ken Darby chorus and the King's Men will sing "Polly Put the Kettle On."

The entire ensemble will combine for "If There Is Someone Lovelier Than You," featuring the voice of "Sally" for the final number.
