

"Keepsakes" Offers Easter Parade Tribute In Song

To the gay young ladies with their sprightly bonnets who join in the Easter parade all over America, "Keepsakes" will offer a tribute in song over WJZ Sunday at 7:30 p. m., EST. "Sweet and Lovely" as a descriptive piece will start the program.

Lovely 18-year-old Patrice Munsel, youngest singer ever to be given a contract at the Metropolitan Opera, will be a guest on "The Family Hour" Easter Sunday, when Gladys Swarthout, star of the program, will be out of town on a concert engagement. (WABC, 4:45 p. m., EST.)

Sheriff Ebenezer Williams has a real surprise for the Charleses when he introduces Crabtree-co's new-fangled lie detector in "The Case of the Phony Brain," this Sunday's fast-moving episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WABC 9:30 p. m., EST.)

William Bendix, as Riley, goes on the defensive against Uncle Baxter's efforts to persuade him to buy an Easter outfit, in "The Life of Riley," on Sunday at 2 p. m., over Station WJZ. Uncle Baxter's efforts to chisel an Easter suit lay an egg, when Riley lands Baxter a job, where he can earn money to buy himself his spring outfit. As usual, tho, the uncle, allergic to work, turns the tables. Supporting film star Bendix are Hans Conried as Uncle Baxter, Paula Winslowe as Mrs. Riley, Sharon Douglas as Babs and Conrad Binyon as Junior.

Ray Milland, Hollywood's handsome man of the romantic films, will meet up with Charlie McCarthy Easter Sunday at 7 p. m., EST, over WEA. Edgar Bergen, Mortimer Snerd, Jane Powell and Ray Noble will play their respects to the visiting screen star.

"NO KIDDING," IT'S TWIN BOYS FOR PATROLMAN

Instead of handing out tickets for traffic violations, State Highway Patrolman Joseph Wolfe, 521 S. West-st., will be handing out those hard to get cigars. Late Saturday afternoon Patrolman Wolfe became the father of two bouncing baby boys.

Thirty-one-year-old Wolfe, who stands 2-B in the draft until July, was about the most surprised man in Lima, he said. When informed of the double birth, he asked a St. Rita's hospital nurse: "Are you kidding?" She assured him she wasn't. She had the evidence, one weighing seven pounds, seven ounces and the other tipping the scales at six pounds, five ounces.

Names for the two youngsters have not been decided upon definitely as yet, but Wolfe said after discussing it with his wife, he thinks one will be named after himself, Joseph Robert, Jr., and the other Charles Eugene, after his two brothers now in the service. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe have one other child, a three-year-old daughter, Ann Leslie.

The twins were two of four
