

"So that's what Buck meant when he said he was attending a peace conference!"

Cecil B. DeMille Will Present "Happy Land"

Don Ameche, Frances Dee and Walter Brennan will star in "Happy Land," when Cecil B. DeMille presents his version of the sympathetic story of a war's tragedy in a small Iowa town on Monday. The full-hour dramatic show is aired regularly at 8 p. m. EST over WABC.

Radio dialers will hear how the Good Neighbor Policy works on U. S. soil when Vox Pop visits the University of Texas, in Austin, on Monday. Parks Johnson and Warren

Hull, broadcasting at 7 p. m. EST, over WABC from the university's Latin American Institute, will interview students from Mexico, Central and South America, who are forging a link of mutual understanding between the allied nations of the American continent.

With J. C. Dithers still in the hospital, and Dagwood running the office, Blondie decides that the place needs the feminine touch, and "Blondie Cleans Up the Office" on Monday at 6:30 p. m. over Station WABC. Before she gets to work on Dithers' desk, tho, Dithers arranges for the preservation of a few choice secrets, including the contents of a certain little black book. Penny Singleton stars as Blondie, with Arthur Lake as Dagwood.

Alfred Drake and Everett Sloane star in "The First Commando," a story of General Frances Marion of Revolutionary fame on "Cavalcade of America" Monday (WEAF 7 p. m. EST).

MONDAY, APRIL 10

The Orchestra of the Americas, Los Andrimis and Victoria Cordova will take WJZ listeners on a tour of the republics of Central and South America on Saludos Amigos, Monday at 10:30 p. m. EST.

More than 100 years old, an apple tree in Vancouver, Wash., still bears.

DOORS OPEN DAILY AT 12:45

WARNER BROS. OHIO

LAST FEATURE TONITE 9:35

NOW! 44¢ Till 6 p. m.
HIS GREATEST!

HUMPHREY