

Cary Grant Appears On "Time To Smile" Show

With Actor Cary Grant as trainer and Vaudevillian Don Barclay as rubber, Eddie Cantor will get into condition for a transcontinental trip on this "Time to Smile" broadcast Wednesday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EST). Sparring partner for all three will be Bert "Russian" Gordon. Nora Martin will sing and Edgar "Cookie" Fairchild's orchestra will accompany her.

Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" troupe will broadcast from the Acorn Training Station at Port Hueneme, Calif., on Wednesday at 9 p. m. over Station WEAF. Georgia Carroll, Harry Babbitt, Sully Mason and Ish Kabibble will be heard, along with the orchestra, in this hour of entertainment.

James F. Barnes, director of the Office of War Mobilization, is heard over WEAF when he speaks

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT, 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by network made too late to incorporate.)

5:30—Just Plain Bill, Dramatic—nbc
The Jack Armstrong Serial, bluecast
The Sea Hound's report—blu west before the annual meeting of the Academy of Political Science Wednesday (8:30-9 p. m., EST). He will be introduced by Lewis W. Douglas, Academy president.

It's a plea that any young man is apt to make—the Ken Darby Chorus' number, "Please Won't You Leave My Girl Alone" that starts off the Wednesday program of "Top of the Evening" (WJZ, 9:15 p. m., EST).

A mysterious stranger follows Pamela North home, warns her that she is marked for death, then falls dead on her living room rug, sending "Mr. and Mrs. North" off on another of their murder investigations, on Wednesday at 7 p. m. over Station WEAF. "The Little Man Who Wasn't There" offers