

Cecil B. DeMille Airs "Coney Island" Monday

On Monday at 8 p. m., EST over WABC, Cecil B. DeMille will present his version of "Coney Island." Dorothy Lamour, Alan Ladd and Chester Morris will be the screen stars in the full-hour dramatic presentation.

Miss Lamour will play the role of Kate Farley, attractive young singer who wins both the hearts of her boss Joe Rocco, characterized by Chester Morris, and Eddie Johnson, a gay nineties show man, portrayed by Alan Ladd. The setting, is New York's famous playground "Coney Island" at the turn of the century.

Lou Silvers will be in charge of the musical score for "Coney Island."

Nelson Eddy, baritone of motion pictures and the concert stage, returns as guest soloist on the "Great Artists Series" Monday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EST). Donald Voorhees conducts the Symphonic Orchestra.

Eddy opens the concert with the delightful "Let's Make Tomorrow Today" by Heymann, and Donald Voorhees leads the orchestra in Debussy's "En Bateau."

With Dithers ready to be discharged from the hospital (where he went for treatment of a leg, broken in the process of kicking Dagwood out of the office).

"Blondie Redecorates the Office," on Monday at 6:30 p. m., over Station WABC. Dithers arrives on the scene and nearly has a relapse, as he sees frilly slip covers on his desk, the files and the water cooler. He is ready to kick Dagwood out all over again, but Blondie and Dagwood strategically avoid dismissal. Penny Singleton stars as Blondie, with Arthur Lake as Dagwood, Hanley Stafford as Dithers, and Elvia Allman as Mrs. Dithers.
