

Nick Charles Solves The "Gruesome Twosome Case"

It's not concern over a beautiful damocel this time, but a deep interest in the safety of his own neck, which sets Nick Charles to solving "The Case of the Gruesome Twosome." this Sunday's brain-teasing episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WABC 9:30 p. m. EST.)

Clyde Beatty, the famous lion tamer and circus performer, will snap the whip verbally when he bandies works with Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy on WEAF's program Sunday at 7 p. m., EST. But Charlie should be more interested in Yvette, the glamorous French songstress, who also will be on the program. Ray Noble and his orchestra provide the music.

The movie star Bonita Granville and the piano team of Frank Carter and Arthur Bowie are guests of "The Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street," on Sunday, at 8:15 p. m., over Station WJZ. Carter and Bowie, who were selected by the Society of American Pianists as the outstanding keyboard team of 1943, will swap banter with "Dr." Milton J. Cross, chairman of the society. Paul Lavalley will be in his accustomed place on the podium, conducting the sudy symphony.

Magic melodies from the pen of the gifted George Gershwin, tunes from his immortal operetta "Porgy and Bess," will be gloriously sung on "Keepsakes" Sunday over WJZ

at 7:30 p. m. "Summertime" and "I Got Plenty of Nothin'" which captivated all America when first sung in the original production, will continue to live and be treasured as eternal keepsakes.
