

Colman And Bergman Star In "Death Takes A Holiday"

With tense overtones of the supernatural, "Death Takes A Holiday" gets an airing on Ronald Colman's "Everything for the Boys" over WEAJ Tuesday at 6 30 p. m., EST, with Ingrid Bergman headlining opposite Colman as the evening's guest star.

When beautiful Serena Dale is found stabbed to death in her apartment, police seek out her boy friend, James Shannon, and bring him to trial for murder in the thrilling case which will be dramatized by Famous Jury Trials, Tuesday at 8 p. m., EST, over WJZ

A milestone in radio broadcasting will be set up Tuesday when Bob Strong and his orchestra join the Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands over WJZ at 8 30 p. m. EST. For the occasion will mark the 500th broadcast of the program the first time such an extended commercial program has achieved so many performances in so short a time.

Roland Young, who was forced to withdraw from an earlier appearance on Milton Berle's "Let Yourself Go" laugh session, tries again on Tuesday at 6 p. m., over Station WJZ, when he brings his secret ambition to the microphone and enlists Berle's aid ("") in realizing it. Young was booked for the April 11 broadcast, but withdrew apologetically at the last moment when he found out that Berle had planned to have him fulfill his hidden wish at the top of a ladder.

Judy takes over the office of mayor and with her brother Randolph helping decides to clean up the town, on "A Date With Judy," on Tuesday at 7 30 p. m., over Station WEAJ. It's all a result of an essay contest, in which Judy, appropriating Randolph's composition on good government, rides into office. The executives for a day run into unexpected embarrassment, when they dispatch the police to raid what they believe is a gambling house. Louise Erickson plays the title role, with Dix Davis as Randolph.

CASUALTY JINX HITS FAMILY