

Gildersleeve Appears On "First Nighter Program"

The Great Gildersleeve will make a guest starring appearance on the program that gave him his radio start on Wednesday when Hal Peary, who is Gildy in the radio series, guests on the First Nighter program at 8:30 p. m., EST over WOR.

Peary will play opposite Barbara Luddy in a vehicle titled "Thanks to Mr. Shakespeare." It will not be a first meeting for this pair in the "Little Theatre Off Times Square" because several years ago, when Miss Luddy was just beginning as star on the program, Peary was a regular member of her supporting cast.

Adolphe Menjou, the suave screen star of the impeccable, sartorial dress will pay a visit to the Frank Sinatra program, Wednesday, at 8 p. m., EST over WABC. Jerry Lester, stage and radio comic, will be a feature of the evening's entertainment.
