

Listener's Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS.

7:00 a. m.—WCFL—Daily War Journal: Martin Agronsky interviews Harrison Spangler, chairman, Republican National committee.

9:45—W.G.N.—June Baker interviews Col. Herman H. Weiner.

9:45 p. m.—WMAQ—Peter F. George on "The Palestine Dilemma."

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA.

1:15 p. m.—W.G.N.—Bondwagon, with Eddie Stone and his orchestra.

7:00—WBBM—Kate Smith show. Guest: Capt. Burgess Meredith.

7:30—W.G.N.—Freedom of Opportunity show salutes Donald Louis Hesson, who surmounted blindness to become an outstanding lawyer.

8:00—WBBM—It Pays to Be Ignorant, with Tom Howard, M. C.

8:30—W.G.N.—Double or Nothing, with John Reed King, M. C.

8:30—WBBM—That Brewster Boy, with Dick York and Jane Webb.

8:30—WMAQ—People Are Funny, quiz. Guest: Clyde Beatty.

9:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy show.

9:00—WBBM—Moore-Durante show, with Songstress Georgia Gibbs.

9:30—WBBM—Canteen, with Adolphe Menjou, Ilka Chase, and Patsy Kelly.

9:30—W.G.N.—Weird Circle presents "The Cask of Amontillado."

9:30—WENR—Nero Wolfe presents "The Case of the Dying Portrait."

10:00—WENR—Hollywood academy: Elaine Barrie in "Little Miss Fortune."

MUSIC.

Noon—WAAF—Symphonie hour: Franck's Symphony in D Minor.

12:15 p. m.—W.G.N.—Jack Berch, featuring music of the Three Suns.

7:30—WLS—Meet Your Navy, with Lt. Sigvart Steen directing Great Lakes choir.

7:30—WMAQ—All Time Hit Parade, with Lulu Bates and Lee Strahorn.

9:15—WENR—Top of the Evening, with Sally Sweetland, Ken Darby, King's Men.

9:30—WWZR—Opera: "Der Rosenkavalier."

10:05—WIND—Symphonie hour: Haydn's Hornsichord Concerto.