

Bill Gargan Will Guest On Eddie Cantor's Show

Actor Bill Gargan will be Eddie Cantor's guest on the "Time to Smile" broadcast Wednesday, when the program originates at the U. S. Coast Guard Training Station at Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn at 9 p. m. EWT, over WEAJ.

Cantor will be accompanied by Songstress Nora Martin, the Norsemen quartet Bert (Russian) Gordon, Harry von Zell and Vincent Travels' orchestra.

Femee Hildegard sings "Whistle While You Work" as part of a Walt Disney medley which includes "One Song" and "Heigh Ho" by Harry Sosnik's orchestra on "Beat the Band" Wednesday (WEAF, 8 30 p. m. EWT).

A "corpse" that won't stay dead causes no end of trouble for the sleuthing "Mr and Mrs North" Wednesday, over WEAJ at 8 p. m. EWT.

Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin play the part. James Andrews directs the comedy and Charles Paul composes and conducts original music.

Van Buren's bazooka playing celebrity, Bob Burns will be Frank Sinatra's first guest star back in Hollywood next Wednesday night at 9 p. m. EWT over WABC Jersey Lester, "The Voice's" comedian friend he made while in New York will add his antics to the half hour show.

WEDNESDAY, May 17

NOTED WRITER IS KILLED ON ITALIAN FRONT

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NAPLES, May 17—(AP)—Friedrich Faust, war correspondent for Harper's magazine and better known under the pen name of Max Brand as a fiction and movie writer, was killed in action Thursday night on the Lower Garigliano sector, it was disclosed today.

Faust, who wrote under four other pen names, was creator of the Dr. Kildare stories which had wide popularity in motion pictures. He wrote 85 books and also quantities of fiction and became known as "King of the Pulps."

Faust was killed the opening night of the Fifth Army offensive. He previously had been reported wounded. He went into the opening assault with the troops only a short time after