O'Hara's Georgia home. ill present In World War II, most of the stories of heroics and military accomplishment have come direct from the fighting fronts. But starting Sunday (WEAF, 3:30 p. m., EWT) the "Army Hom" will begin a series of programs dedirated to those members of the Army services who are guarding the arteries which lead to the battlefronts of the world. Riley is elected most popular worker at his aircraft plant, and as such has to make a speech, presenting an airplane to a visiting general, in "The Life of Riley," starring William Bendix, on Sunday at 3 p. m., over Station W.J.Z. Getting the speech written involves Riley in some hilarious difficulties with his family. Featured: with Bendix are Paula Winslowe;
