

McCarthy Will Broadcast Ohio Handicap Saturday

One of the Mid-West's biggest horse races will be broadcast by WEAF Saturday (5:30 p. m., EWT), when Clem McCarthy gives a running account of the Ohio Handicap from Randall Park, Cleveland.

Bill Stern, NBC director of sports, will do the pre-race color story of this turf event, which will bring to the post some of the best horses in the country for the mile and seventy-yards.

When Lawrence Tibbett appears with his fellow guest, Helen Jepson, on WJZ's program "The Music America Loves Best," Saturday at 7:30 p. m., EWT, he'll sing "Ole Man River" from "Show Boat," a selection which he was the first to introduce to concert audiences.

Edwin S. Friendly, vice president and general manager of the New York Sun, who as national chairman of the U. S. Victory Waste Paper Campaign, has solved innumerable problems in the collection of vital waste paper, will apply his organizing acumen to crime clues when he and orchestra leader Vincent Lopez are armchair detectives on Ellery Queen's "Adventure of the Great Chewing-Gum Mystery," Saturday at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WEAF.

King-size Roy Acuff will solo "Put Me in Your Pocket" and pick up his Smoky Mountain Boys to board the "Night Train to Memphis" on "Grand Ole Opry" Saturday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m., EWT).

Texas Ruby and Curly Fox will do some more traveling in "Freight Train Blues," Rachel and Oswald will hark back to "Jessie James" and Jimmy Riddle will blow
