

"Farmer Takes A Wife" To Be Aired Wednesday

That gay and colorful comedy of life on the Erie Canal, "The Farmer Takes a Wife," is the play on "Arthur Hopkins Presents" Wednesday over WEAF at 11:30 p. m., EWT. June Walker, who starred in the play on Broadway in 1934, again will play the lovable Milly Larkins. Wendell Corey will play opposite her as the farmer, Dan Harrow.

Sunset on the river may be picturesque, but when "Mr. District Attorney" discovers a slight case of homicide in "The Case of the Riverfront Murder," Wednesday at 9:30 p. m., over Station WEAF, he becomes art conscious.

In fact, the "D. A." finds himself looking at pictures in a gallery . . . Rogues' Gallery. Jay Jostyn, Vicki Vola and Len Doyle co-star in the series, written and directed by Jerry Devine.

Penny Bartlett, whose good intentions have lethal results, gets her Dad in a jam by trying to prevent him from spending a lonely evening during the WJZ broadcast of "My Best Girls" Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

Baritone Lawrence Tibbett will guest on Eddie Cantor's "Time to Smile" Wednesday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EWT). The NBC comedian continues to entertain with Singer Nora Martin, Comedian Bert (Russian) Gordon, the Four Norsemen and Vincent Travers orchestra. Harry von Zell announces.

Hildegard will sing "Love Is Sweeping the Country" and "I'll Get By" on WEAF's musical quiz program "Beat the Band," Wednesday (8:30 p. m., EWT).

Numbers by Harry Sosnik's orchestra will be "La Paloma" and "The Blue Danube Waltz." The medley will be "Love and a Dime," "Princeton Cannon Song" and "East of the Sun," with Hildegard singing the latter.
