

Lana Turner Will Guest On Frank Sinatra Show

Frank Sinatra will top off his season on the Wednesday night's show, by presenting one of Hollywood's best known glamor girls as his guest—the lovely Lana Turner. The program will be heard over WABC at 9 p. m. EWT.

Jerry Lester, Truman Bradley, the Vocalists and Axel Stordahl's orchestra complete the talent line-up for the final presentation of the season.

Racketeers who prey on the families of men in combat overseas come in for investigation by "Mr. District Attorney," in "The Case of the Invasion Swindle," on Wednesday at 9:30 p. m., over Station WEAJ. The unscrupulous racketeers call on the families of the service men, with C. O. D. packages containing virtually worthless articles, on which they claim the soldier in question has paid a deposit, before embarking. The families usually accept the packages, and pay the "unpaid balance." With the help of his aids (Len Doyle and Vicki Vola), "Mr. District Attorney" (Jay Jostyn) clamps down on this vicious swindle.

The Seabees at Camp Rousseau, Point Huene, Calif., will be visited by Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" troupe Wednesday (WEAF, 10 p. m., EWT). Georgia Carroll, Sully Mason, Diane Pendleton and Ish Kabibble head the Kyser entertainers.

With Pamela out of town, Jerry North thinks he can relax, without being led into a murder investigation by his wife, in the "Mr. and Mrs. North" broadcast over Station WEAJ, on Wednesday at 8 p. m. But "Pam Tries Remote Control," both to land Jerry right in the middle of a set of disappearing corpses, and to suggest a
