

Young And Fitzgerald Star In Thursday's "Suspense"

A pair of screen stars, Robert Young and Geraldine Fitzgerald, play the roles of a married couple beset by a strange obsession, when 'Suspense' broadcasts an unusual story "Friend to Alexander" over Station WABC Thursday at 8 p. m. Young is heard as a young man, convinced that he is a reincarnation of Alexander Hamilton, and that he will die as Hamilton did. Weird developments occur, as the story moves to a shocking climax.

Bob Hope, who is affectionately called "Snag Snoot" by his good friend Bing Crosby, will be the guest of the "Crooner" on his program Thursday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WFAF. Marilyn Maxwell and "Ukie" Sherin will join the reception committee.

A priceless tea cup will assume an important role in the National Safety Council's program "It's Murder!" Thursday at 10:15 p. m. EWT over WJZ.

"Rex Starr" retired actor and amateur criminologist, and his Broadway columnist niece "Joan Adams" break the tea cup and solve a murder in the mystery drama and regret both.

THURSDAY JUNE 15

Another $50 War Bond and 10 other prizes of $5 each in cash will be given on the program's national safety luncheon contest.

The annual village rose festival presents a problem for Joan Davis on "The Joan Davis Show with Jack Haley" Thursday (WFAF 9:30 p. m. EWT).

Joan's troubles start when she discovers that Penny (Sharon Douglas) Cartwright is to be crowned queen of the festival with Jack Haley doing the honors. Ed die Paul and his orchestra "The Fountainheads" and Dave Street provide the music.

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES
GIVEN SALARY RAISES