

Betty Grable Guests On Stage Door Canteen Show

Betty Grable, favorite pin-up girl of hundreds of thousands of men in the armed services, airs a personal salute to the fighting men of the United Nations, when she appears on the "Stage Door Canteen" broadcast, over Station WABC on Friday at 10:30 p. m. Other prominent stars of the entertainment world will join Miss Grable in this program which has Bert Lytell as master of ceremonies, and music by Raymond Paige's orchestra.

Nobody's more surprised than Nick when he discovers that his own beloved Nora is responsible for throwing him right into the arms of a famous movie star, in "The Case of the Celluloid Wolf," Friday's episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WEAF 8:30-9 p. m., EWT).

No matter what the thermometer says on Friday, Jimmy Durante plans to start a fire, as atmosphere for a fireside chat, in his broadcast with Garry Moore over Station WABC at 10 p. m. Jimmy, continuing his campaign for the presidency, reports his latest findings on the conditions that prevail, and the latest escapades of his campaign manager, Umbrigo. Moore offers comments on cultural matters, and the music is contributed by Georgia Gibbs and Roy Bargy's orchestra.

With Nancy "too busy" to wrap and mail a photograph requested by her soldier friend, stationed overseas, her father and brother take over, maintaining that "Men Get Things Done," in the adventure of "The Parker Family" to be broadcast Friday at 8:15 p. m., over station WJZ. Picking up the glamor photo at the photographer's and wrapping it prove easy enough, but sending it is something else again, as Richard and his father run into one postal regulation after another. They finally do get it mailed . . . but almost immediately, they begin regretting their success. Members of "The Parker Family" are Jay Jostyn and Marjorie Anderson as Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mitzi Gould as Nancy, and Michael O'Day as Richard.
