

Cracker Barrel" Confab Scheduled For Saturday

at the Beaumont General Hospital, El Paso, Texas. The Baruch at their bedsides for a "cracker barrel" of the day, when the Army Service Forces' "Visit" for the broadcast on Saturday at 3:30 p. m., over the program also features celebrities from the entertainment worlds.

of Paducah) Saturday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m. EWT).
s that trains
se days that Gardens look will discuss
and Ole Opry

JULY 15

dicchio Or.—nbc
in Review—cbs
ue, Waves—blu
ce Music—mbs
es Series—cbs
nd Sports—nbc
in Concert—cbs
e" Quiz — blu
ng Music—mbs
y Orch.—nbc
ty Show — cbs
my Show—blu
Hospital—mbs
y, Orches.—nbc
ing Time—cbs
z Concert—blu
ce Music—mbs
omment — nbc
ow; News—cbs
s Review—blu
a (15 m.)—mbs
ys, Song—nbc
Racing — mbs
d (30 m.)—nbc
1 Husing—cbs
30 mins.—mbs
s Report—cbs
nc Talks—nbc
Drama—cbs
t Orches.—blu
s Salute—mbs
r's Talk—nbc Dramatic—cbs
lf Hour—mbs
agabonds—nbc
Program—blu
y Wings—nbc
ws Time—cbs
ry Page—blu Orches.—mbs

Saturday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m. EWT).

Roy Acuff, singing star and emcee of the Opry, will solo "The Great Speckled Bird"; Jimmy Riddle will harmonica "Bye Bye Blues"; Vocalist Eddy Arnold will offer "I'll Be the Same." and the Old Hickory Singers, "When It's Lamp Lighting Time in the Valley."

Elmo Tanner, former soloist of Ted Weems and his orchestra and often called the world's greatest whistler, will purse his lips in "Nola" when he guests on "Starring Curt Massey" Saturday (WEAF, 5:45 p. m., EWT).

The Vagabonds novelty quartet, songstress Lynn Chalmers and Jim Blade and his music join Curt in several numbers.

Carrambas and sambas, latins and batons. South America and South Brooklyn will join in a joyous jamborie when Xavier Cugat, maestro of the mellow melody, visits Patsy Kelly and Barry Wood on their Saturday show over WEAF at 10 p. m., EWT. and as for Pancho, the moronic master of malaprops, he is delirious with joy over the prospect of meeting someone who can understand his Spanish-spouting.