and Frank Buck. Durante claims Moore is so conceited he'd how at the clap of thunder. And once more the zames get tangled up in a battle of bon mots over WABC Friday at 10 p. m. Durante, the presidential candidate, and Moore, the culture corner kid, are supported on this broadcast by Georgia Gibbs, singer, and Roy Bary's orchestra.

A salute to the Army Service Forces, in the form of a medley composed by Pfc. Frank Loesser, heads Dr. Frank Black's concert program, broadcast over Station WEA's on Friday, at 8 p. m. Also included is a medley from the motion picture hit, "Cover Girl." These songs, originally scheduled a week earlier, include "Cover Girl," "Sure Thing," "Make Way for Tomorrow" and "Long Ago and Far Away." Dr. Black also conducts the orchestra in "A La Bien Amice." Lucille Manners, soprano, sings "Marechiaro" by Toschi, and "My Shining Hour." "Rogue Song" features the baritone voice of Ross Graham.

With Dagwood around to help her (it says here) move furniture, children and pups into the new home, "Blondie" will shift to another network starting Friday at 7 p. m. over WJZ. All the regulars will be around when "Blondie" takes over for a new sponsor, a soap manufacturer. Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake play Blondie and Dagwood and Tommy Cook is heard as Alexander. Hanley Stafford and Elvia Allman are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dithers.
