

Tonight's Aces

Music

6 p. m.—Music Shop (WIBA): "Every Day of My Life," "Lullaby of Broadway."

6:30 p. m.—Friday on Broadway (WBBM): "I'll Be Seeing You," "Amor," "Long Ago and Far Away," "It Had to Be You."

7 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA): "Salute to Army Service Forces," "Rogue Song," "A La Bien Aimee," "My Shining Hour," "Cover Girl" medley.

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA): "What a Difference a Day Made," "An Hour Never Passes," "Janie," "Too Much in Love."

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Freddie Martin.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m.—Freedom of Opportunity (WGN): salute to Helen Keller, blind, deaf, and mute authoress and lecturer.

8:15 p. m.—Screen Test (WGN): Bret Morrison, radio actor, tries for film fame.

8:55 p. m.—Storyteller (WENR): "The Floating Rock," telling of shipwrecked sailors who hewed a boat of stone.

◆ ◆ ◆

Drama

6:15 p. m.—We Who Dream (WBBM): "The Dream of the Woman in the Looking Glass."

7:15 p. m.—Parker Family (WLS): goes all out for jitterbugging.

7:30 p. m.—Thin Man (WIBA): "The Case of the Deadly Girdle."

8:30 p. m.—Brewster Boy (WBBM): wrong numbers cause complications.

9 p. m.—Boston Blackie (WIBA): has an adventure with black marketeers.

9:30 p. m.—Blondie (WENR): premiere on new network; "Blondie Calls the Plumber."

10:30 p. m.—Author's Playhouse (WIBA): "Bad Dream" by Isabelle Scott Rorick.

◆ ◆ ◆

Variety

7 p. m.—Charlie Ruggles (WBBM): with Cass Daley and Jane Withers.

7:30 p. m.—Meet Your Navy (WLS): Lieut. Robert MacGregor will describe his experiences in a bombing attack on Paramushiro; music, "Young Man with a Horn," "Lady Be Good," "Rosalie," "Dance of the Spanish Onion."

9:30 p. m.—Stage Door Canteen (WBBM): Jane Froman, Shirley Booth, and Joseph Cotten.

◆ ◆ ◆

Saturdaytime

9 a. m.—Fanny Hurst Presents (WLS): "God Made Little Apples," story of modern marriage and tangled love affairs of four people.

10 a. m.—Homemakers' Program (WHA): Mrs. Thomas E. Orbison, Appleton, state chairman of youth interests committee of AAUW and Red Cross chairman of Outagamie county, will speak on youth organizations in Wisconsin.

10:05 a. m.—Let's Pretend (WBBM): "The Chinese Nightingale."

10:30 a. m.—Melody Roundup (WMAQ): "I'm Nobody's Sweetheart Now," "Chinatown," "Hills of Old Wyoming."

11 a. m.—Alex Dreier (WMAQ): with Leif Eld, Washington reporter, discussing Democratic convention . . . Theater of Today (WBBM): Mary Philips in domes-

PENNY SINGLETON

"Blondie"

WENR at 9:30

* * *

tic comedy.

11:15 a. m.—Consumer Time (WIBA): "Mr. Lumpkin's Laboratory," program observing National Safety Week.

11:30 a. m.—Atlantic Spotlight (WCFL): songwriters Johnny Mercer and Noel Gay exchange words and music from Hollywood and London . . . Stars Over Hollywood (WBBM): Nancy Kelly in "Adventures of a Fur Coat."

12 m.—Here's to Youth (WMAQ): "World Without End," drama stressing need for universal friendship among all youth . . . Grand Central Station (WBBM): with Mady Christians and Roy Fant.

1 p. m.—Musicana (WMAQ): Joseph Gallicchio's orchestra; Jeanne MacKenna, contralto; Norton Sisters, vocal trio; Richard Paige, tenor.

1:02 p. m.—Women in Blue (WLS): guest, Vice-Admiral Herbert Fairfax Leary, commander of Eastern sea frontier.

1:30 p. m.—Young People's Platform (WBBM): high school students discuss "What Agency or Organization Do You Think Can Most Effectively Prevent Juvenile Delinquency?"

2 p. m.—Sky High (WMAQ): "I'll Get By," "Bugle Call Rag," "Blue Skies," "One Alone." . . . On Target (WBBM): from Great Lakes naval training station, with drama of Battle of Saipan; music "Ooh, That Kiss," "San Fernando Valley," "Summertime," and Cohan medley.

2:02 p. m.—Twenty-One Stars (WCFL): variety show with interview with Maj. Gun Philip Hayes.

2:30 p. m.—Victory Matinee (WBBM): guest, Victor Borge, pianist-comedian . . . Visiting Hour (WCCO): from La Garde General hospital, New Orleans, with Marcy McGuire, screen comedienne.

4 p. m.—Your America (WMAQ): salute to coal mining industry; story, "The Patience of Job," music, "I Hear America Singing," "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows."

4:15 p. m.—These Are the Marines (WENR): dramatization of fall of Charan Canoa, town on Saipan Island.

4:30 p. m.—Mother and Dad (WBBM): guest, Marshall Rogers, with his musical glasses.

4:45 p. m.—Hello Sweetheart (WENR): "Amor," "Goodbye Broadway, Hello France," "Coming in on a Wing and a Prayer." . . . Curt Massey (WIBA): first anniversary request program; "You'll Never Know," "Mood Indigo," "Estrellita," "If I Had My Way."

OTHER STATIONS SATURDAY

MORNING