Helen Forrest Returns To "Everything For The Boys"

Dick Haymes' first guest star of the season, Helen Forrest, is being recalled by the boys for "Everything for the Boys." Tuesday, the lovely song star, in answer to a flood of requests, again will be the guest of Emcee Haymes for a WEAF broadcast at 7:30 p. m., EWT.

With Judy's brother, Randolph, and Curly Whiteman both contestants in a quiz show, Judy and her girl friend, Tootsie, back their favorites with a bet . . . and the bet nearly rules out for a month the possibility of "A Date with Judy" . . . in the broadcast over WEAF Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. Judy and Tootsie agree that the one who fails to guess the winner of the quiz has to give up dates for the month of August, so naturally both girls back their representatives to the utmost. Louise Erickson stars as Judy.

When Sam Jones was killed all of the neighbors shook their heads, then thought of Ezra Bidwell. If ever a man was angry at another down in the mountain country it was Ezra because Sam Jones had tipped off the revenue men that Bidwell was cooking illegal hooch. And then while Ezra resided in the clink his wife divorced him and married Jones. That is the picture which comes up before the public in WJZ's Famous Jury Trials, to be heard Tuesday from 9 to 9:30 p. m. EWT.

A man whose mind hovered dangerously close to complete mental eclipse, nevertheless managed to write some of the most amiable and distinctive prose in the English language. His story is narrated by Marvin Mueller on WJZ's Coronet Storyteller program Tuesday at 9:55 p. m., EWT. The tale is called "A Brother's Love."

Dr. V. W. Bauer of Chicago, director of the Bureau of Health Education of the American Medical-assn, will be guest speaker on "The Doctor Fights," when that dramatic series starring Raymond Massey airs Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WABC. Dr Bauer will describe the work of the council on
