

Veterans' Education Problem Sunday Radio Program Topic

"Education for Veterans" is the topic to be explored on the second broadcast of the "University of the Air's new post-war series, "Pursuit of Learning," Sunday (WEAF, 4:30 p. m. EWT).

Speakers will be Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of Veterans' Affairs of the Veterans' Administration; Senator Elbert D. Thomas, Utah Democrat serving on the Senate Committee on Education and Labor, and Dr. Fred J. Kelly, chief of the Higher Education Division of the U. S. Office of Education.

Two Metropolitan Opera stars, contralto Anna Kaskas and Baritone Martial Singher, will be guest soloists on "World of Song" on Sunday at 4:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. With the orchestra conducted by Wilfred Pelletier, they will be heard in a program of operatic selections and light classics. Both soloists reached the Metropolitan as winners of the "Auditions of the Air."

Honesty is a bust policy for Alexander Bumstead when "Blondie's Son Tells a Lie" over WABC Sunday, at 8 p. m., and then can't get anyone to believe him when he tells the truth. Penny Singleton has the title role, Arthur Lake is Dagwood, Tommy Cook is Alexander and Hanley Stafford is J. C. Dithers in this laugh half hour written by John Greene.

Phil Harris doffs the professional cap and gown he wears as professor pro tem of "College of Musical Knowledge" when he guests on "Your All-Time Hit Parade" Sunday, at 7 p. m. (EWT) over WEAF.

Tommy Dorsey and his 40-piece orchestra, supported by Bob Allan, the Sentimentalists and Bonnie Lou Williams are featured on the program. Harry Von Zell announces.

A double-barreled assault by comics is in store for Gracie Fields Sunday, when Screen Star Lucille Ball and Alan Reed, the Falstaff Openshaw of Fred Allen's show, are her guests. (8:00 p. m., EWT, WEAF.)

Shell Co. Term Gardeners Plan

The second annual Victory Food Fair of the Lima Shell Terminal Victory Garden club will be held Tuesday. Twenty-four employees, who last spring, as members of the club, planted vegetables, will be asked to enter the choicest samples of their homegrown produce in the fair. The prizes will be special certificates of merit, war bonds and stamps and ribbons awarded for the best vegetables in each class.

In addition to the awards, there will be fun and frolic carried on in the spirit of old time county fairs and harvest balls.

The prizes will be awarded by J. J. Kuehn, terminal superintendent and M. L. Barrett, Shell gardener and J. H. Warner, Allen-co agent.

The Lima terminal group is one of a score or more Victory Garden clubs organized last spring by Shell employees when the government urged all civilians to cultivate 10% more Victory gardens for
