

Georgie Price Guests On "Let Yourself Go" Show

Georgie Price, night club and stage comic, reveals his hidden desires and does something about getting them off his chest, when he appears as Milton Berle's guest on the merry "Let Yourself Go" session, over Station WJZ Tuesday at 10:30 p. m. Assisting Berle musically in this unusual series is Ray Block's orchestra.

Nazi saboteurs set fire to warehouses in which vital war materials are stored on the "Green Hornet" thriller to be heard Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., EWT over WJZ.

In the story the criminals count on the fact that officials will be relaxed because America is winning the war and therefore easy marks for their arson. However Brit Reid, publisher of the "Sentinel," does a neat bit of sleuthing in the role of the "Green Hornet" and brings the Nazis to heel in a spectacular manner. "Flames of Wrath" is the title of the mystery drama.

Leon Feuchtwanger's book "Simone," about an heroic French girl who epitomizes the spirit of her country's patriots will be the drama on WEAf's "Words at War" series Tuesday (9:30 p. m.,
