

Georgie Jessel Appears As Guest On "Canteen"

Georgie Jessel, veteran stage, screen and radio comic, heads the guest star list at the "Stage Door Canteen," when he makes an encore appearance on the air show Friday at 10 30 p. m. over Station WABC. Bert Lytell, as master of ceremonies, will introduce Jessel. Raymond Paige conducts the "Canteen" orchestra.

Dagwood and Blondie give an Arab five dollars to help finance a trip to Scranton, the Arab gives them a ring that he says will grant their wishes, and the Bumsteads are off on another mad adventure when "Blondie Does Black Magic," in the broadcast Friday at 7 p. m., over Station WJZ. Dishes become clean and new business appears as if by magic, but the "as if" is important. Penny Singleton stars as Blondie, with Arthur Lake as Dagwood and Hanley Stafford as Dithers. This broadcast concludes the "Blondie" series over this network. "Blondie" will continue to be heard Sundays on WABC.

School days are just around the corner, and Jimmy Durante and Garry Moore celebrate the occasion by airing half an hour of well-educated humor Friday at 10 p. m. over Station WABC. Moore has a cultural contribution to add to the program, not to mention the educational benefits made available to all by Durante, the patron of the arts. Georgia Gibbs serves as vocal teacher, with Roy Baigly conducting the orchestra.

"They're either too young or too old!" weeps Nancy Parker, as she continues to seek out the men in khaki for her entertainment. Richard has other ideas in "A Civilian for Nancy," to be aired on the "Parker Family" Friday at 8 15 p. m. EWT, over WJZ.

Responding to the call of the callope, Nick and Nora Charles make their annual trip to a seaside amusement park in "The Case of the Sneaky Sphinx," Friday's spine-tingling episode of the "Adventures of the Thin Man" at 8 30 p. m., EWT, over WEA.

A ride on the Thunder Thriller roller coaster sets the evening off to a flying start, but when death catches up with them atop the giant ferris wheel Mr. and Mrs. Super-sleuth Charles find themselves in a really tight spot.

NEWS ARTICLE REVIVES HOPE FOR OHIO SON

CLEVELAND, Sept. —(AP) —A story filed by Robert Vermilion, United Press war correspondent, after the invasion of southern France today led a Cleveland father to believe his son is safe despite the fact that the War department has notified him that he is missing in action over France.

William Laigent received a War department telegram saying that his son Sgt. Jesse W. Laigent was
