

Ed Gardner Is Visitor On Charlie McCarthy Program

Ed "Archie" Gardner will stroll over from Duffy's to pay a visit to Edgar Bergen, and his companions Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snerd and Effie Klinker Sunday at 7 p. m., EST. over WEA. Gloria Hamilton, a new songstress in Hollywood, will appear on the half-hour program.

Thelma Altman, Metropolitan Opera soprano, and William Hargrave, baritone, also of the Met, will be guest vocalists with Wilfred Pelletier's orchestra on "World of Song" over Station WJZ Sunday, at 3:30 p. m., EST. Both singers won their Metropolitan contracts via the "Auditions of the Air" program.

With Junior's birthday approaching, Riley decides to buy him a sailboat, and finds that he'll need a washtub to sail the biggest one he can afford, in William Bendix's comedy-drama series, "The Life of Riley." Sunday at 9 p. m., EST. over Station WJZ. When Riley finds a boat builder willing to construct one to order, at Riley's price, everything seems to be under control, but it takes a surprise "twist" to save Riley from his son's doghouse. Supporting Bendix are Conrad Binyon as Junior, Paula Winslowe as Mrs. Riley, Sharon Douglas as Babs, Charlie Cantor as Uncle Buckley and Dink Trout as Waldo Binny.

Many people would go to great lengths these days for a good steak, but few would move their entire community as do the African pygmies for an elephant steak. This unusual story will be brought to listeners on the "Keep Up With the World" program Sunday at 9:30 p. m., EST over WJZ.

Fannie "Baby Snooks" Brice, will pay a visit to the Bumstead home and lend her artistic touch to "Blondie Buys a Painting," the latest adventure of the hilarious family, on Sunday at 7 p. m., EST, over Station WABC. Penny Singleton stars as Blondie, with Arthur Lake as Dagwood, Hanley Stafford as J. C. Dithers and Elvia Allman as Cora.