

Case Of Civilian War Worker To Be Aired Thursday Night

Two prominent labor research men, Aaron Levenstein, director of the Labor Department of Research Institute of America, and James Wishart, research director of the United Automobile Workers' union and former head of the economics department at Wooster college, will present the case of the civilian war worker, when "America's Town Meeting of the Air" discusses the question, "Should Returning Soldiers Have Job Preference Over Senior Workers?" in a broadcast from St. Louis, on Thursday, at 7:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. Speakers for the affirmative, previously announced, will be Harry W. Colmery, past national commander of the American Legion, and Col. Paul H. Griffith, chief of the Veterans' Personnel Division of Selective Service. George V. Denny, Jr., presides as moderator.

"A Wall Is a Bulkhead" is the third and final presentation of winning plays in the John Golden-Third Naval District Play contest Thursday, over WEAF at 7:30 p. m., EST. Written by Leo F. Curley, yeoman first class, and Murray Schumach, seaman second class, the play received third prize of $125.

Igor Gorin, celebrated baritone and Keenan Wynn, will be guests with George Murphy on the Music Hall program to be aired Thursday at 8 p. m., EST, over WEAF. Marilyn Maxwell, the radio songstress recently married in New York to John Conte, will be back in Hollywood for the airshow.

Blonde Betty Hutton, the Battle Creek Bombshell, who plays the role of Texas Guinan in the new musical "Incendiary Blonde," appears as a guest on the Joe E. Brown "Stop or Go" show, Thursday at 9:30 p. m., EST, over Station WJZ.

FLAKO
PIE CRUST