

Sydney Greenstreet Guests On "Amos And Andy" Airing

With movie menace Sydney Greenstreet guest star on the second program of the new Amos 'n' Andy series, radio's famed blackface comedians, Freeman (Amos) Gosden and Charles (Andy) Correll, extricate themselves from some terrifying situations, Friday at 9 p. m., EST, over Station WEAF.

Greenstreet plays a killer, who hides out in a big hotel where the Kingfish has a job as doorman, and Andy is working as a bellhop, but really thinks he is the house detective in disguise.

One of the standout games in the early fall football schedule is the Army-North Carolina clash at Michie stadium, West Point, N. Y. Bill Stern will give the play-by-play description of the game Saturday, over WEAF at 1:30 p. m., EST.

Waltzes by Victor Herbert are combined in a melody arranged by Dr. Frank Black, on his concert broadcast on Friday, at 7 p. m., over Station WEAF. Included are "Kiss Me Again," "I'm Falling in Love with Someone," "A Kiss in the Dark," "Ask Her While the Band Is Playing" and "When You're Away."

Jimmy Durante, who has a nose for news (with room left over for the Times and Sun, tew!), examines the headlines and comes up with his solutions to various pressing problems of the day, in his comedy broadcast with Garry Moore, the man with the short hair and the long words, on Friday at 9 p. m., over Station WABC. Musical details are entrusted to Vocalist Georgia Gibbs and Roy Bargy's orchestra.

Lt. Harold R. Fleck, commander of an LST, will describe how his craft was converted into a carrier for Army reconnaissance planes in the invasion of Sicily, on a WJZ broadcast of "Meet Your Navy," Friday, at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Ed "Archie" Gardner will learn that a diva doesn't necessarily have to sail head first into a "high sea" to make a big splash in high class music circles when Rise Stevens visits "Duffy's Tavern" Friday, over WEAF at 7:30 p. m., EST. In fact, Archie is due to learn a lot about opera singers when he sees that the svelte feminine lead of the recent "Going My Way" is not the hefty, booming creature he imagines Metropolitan stars to be.
