

Veteran Nurse To Be Guest Of The Armchair Detective

"Your America" will pay tribute to one of the world's oldest industries Saturday, over WEA F at 4 p. m., EST., with a salute to the nation's brick and tile manufacturers. J. E. Fender, of Forth Worth, Tex., president of the Structural Clay Products Institute, will be guest speaker.

Storyteller Elden Westley will recall "The Hero of Island X." the account of Lt. Gerald Farrar, who sacrificed his life to save a hospital ship during one of the South Pacific campaigns, and Ray Clark will interview C. A. Bacon, foreman of the scrap salvage yard in the Union Pacific Railroad's shops in Omaha.

To emphasize an appeal on his broadcast for thousands of Army nurses needed to care for mounting casualties, Ellery Queen will have an overseas veteran nurse, Lt. Eileen Mallon as his guest armchair detective for "The Adventure of the Invisible Clock," Saturday, at 6:30 p. m., EST, over WEA F.

Lt. Mallon will tell why a quota of 6,000 volunteers for the Army Nurse Corps must be met by Jan. 1, to keep up the Army Medical Corps' record of saving the lives of 97% of all battle wounded treated.

In the dramatization of his mystery yarn, everyone has a rock-bound alibi, but Mr. Queen, ace gentleman detective, finds an unexpected answer as he solves one of his most baffling problems on the fashionable estate of a Long Island family of wealth.

Placed next to each other, the

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Center News Time 8 P. M. Subject Goes

two titles of the tunes given as musical autographs to Guy Lombardo, by Marlene Dietrich and Wallace Beery, sound like a boy and girl spat. "I Don't Want To Love You," requested La Dietrich to which soft-hearted, burly Beery replied "Somebody Loves Me." The two selections will be played in the movie celebrities' names during the broadcast of Guy Lombardo and His Royal Canadians in Musical Autographs Saturday, at 9:00 p. m., EST over WJZ.

Franchot Tone, one of Hollywood's smartest, brightest leading young men, will drop in on the Barry Wood-Patsy Kelly Show over WEA F Saturday, at 9:00 p. m., EST. Tone starts the show's fall season as the head of a new and exciting array of top-notch talent to follow.

Patsy Kelly, the Flame of Flat-bush, is swooning in contemplation of playing opposite this handsome young Lothario. And while Tone woos her with his histrionic ability, Barry's baritone voice — combined with music of the Million Dollar Band—will "send her" clear out of this world.

MORE EFFICIENT KITCHENS IN STORE FOR HOUSEWIVES

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (A.P.)