

Tonight's Aces

Political Talks

8:55 p. m. — Orson Welles (WMAQ): speaks for Democratic national committee.

9 p. m. — Clare Booth Luce (WENR): sponsored by Republican national committee.

9:45 p. m.—Darlington Hoopes (WMAQ): vice-presidential candidate of Socialist party.

Sports

9 p. m.—Boxing (WIBU, WGN): Ray Robinson vs. Izzy Jannazzo.

9:30 p. m.—Bill Stern (WMAQ): guest, Cesar Romero, coastguardman, former film star.

Miscellaneous

8 p. m.—It Pays to be Ignorant (WBBM): guest, Roland Young.

8:55 p. m.—Storyteller (WENR): "Armed to the Teeth," story of a Russian hero.

Drama

6:15 p. m. — We Who Dream (WBBM): repeat drama, "The Dream of the Bimbo from Limbo."

7 p. m. — Aldrich Family (WBBM): Dad makes an unsuccessful attempt to use psychology.

7:15 p. m. — Parker Family (WLS): Richard's grades cause family to interfere in "No Interference" episode.

7:30 p. m.—Thin Man (WBBM): "Case of the Gorgeous Ghost."

8 p. m.—Gang Busters (WENR): drama of a brutal Oklahoma killer.

8:30 p. m. — Brewster Boy (WBBM): Coastguardman Cesar Romero is guest in special program aiding Chicago's War Fund drive.

9 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy (WIBA): Andy finds Phil Baker's brief case with answers to the "$64 questions."

10 p. m. — I Love a Mystery (WBBM): "The Monster and the Mansion."

10:30 p. m.—We Came This Way (WIBA): "The Peasant's Revolt," dramatization of event during rule of King Richard II.

11:30 p. m. — Words at War (WMAQ): rebroadcast of "The Veteran Comes Back" by Willard Waller.

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Duffy's Tavern (WIBA): guests, Bill Tilden, tennis champion, and Babe Didrickson, golfer.

9 p. m. — Durante and Moore (WBBM): have Friday, the 13th troubles.

9:30 p. m.—Stage Door Canteen (WBBM): with Maria Montez, Raymond Massey and George Jessel . . . Happy Island (WIBA): inhabitants foil plot to substitute tear gas for laughing gas as island's fuel; music, "Without a Sweetheart," "Time Waits for No One."

Music

6:30 p. m.—Friday on Broadway (WBBM): "Dance With a Dolly," "Trolley Song," "Always," "Together."

7 p. m. — Concert Hour (WIBA): "Liebestraum," "Sylvia," "Huguette Waltz," Rodgers and Hart medley.

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA): "Always," "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland," "Together."

LOIS LONG

A new program, Chatham Shopper, is heard on Saturday mornings at 11:15 over WMAQ, conducted by Lois Long, fashion and shopping expert.

8:30 p. m. — Spotlight Bands (WENR): George Hamilton.

Saturdaytime Football

12:45 p. m. — Northwestern-Michigan (WGN).

12:55 p. m. — Northwestern-Michigan (WJJD).

1:30 p. m. — Army-Pittsburgh (WIND).

1:45 p. m. — Wisconsin - Ohio State (WIBA, WIBU, WTMJ, WMAQ, WBBM).

1:45 p. m.—Purdue-Iowa Pre-Flight (WCFL).

1:55 p. m. — Wisconsin - Ohio State (WHA).

Other Programs

9 a. m.—Smiling Ed McConnell (WMAQ): tells tale of an Indian war . . . Fanny Hurst Presents (WLS): "Ice Water, Please," story of an unselfish landlady.

10 a. m.—Citizens of Tomorrow (WGN): salutes Austin high school, in new series of programs devoted to schools of Chicago and vicinity . . . Jamboree (WMAQ): Elmira causes trouble as she realizes it's leap year; music, "Remember," "Garland of Old Fashioned Roses," "Dizzy Fingers."

10:05 a. m. — Let's Pretend (WBBM): "Brave Little Tailor."

10:30 a. m. — Melody Roundup (WMAQ): "Rose of the Rio Grands," "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Timber Trail."

11 a. m. — Theater of Today (WBBM): with Glenda Farrell.

11:15 a. m. — Consumer Time (WIBA): Knowles Ryerson, dean of University of California, will talk about GI Victory gardens in South Pacific . . . Chatham Shopper (WMAQ): guest, John Boles.

11:30 a. m.—Stars Over Hollywood (WBBM): with Ruth Warwick . . . Atlantic Spotlight (WCFL): Alan Young and Bea Wain.

11:35 a. m. — Fire Prevention Week (WIBU): talk by Mayor Kraege.

12 m. — Grand Central Station (WBBM): starring Anthony Kemble-Cooper.

9:45 p. m. — Curt Massey (WIBA): guests, Barbara Marshall, vocalist, and Jose Bethancourt, marimbist; "Indiana," "You Always Hurt the One You Love."