cious and fanatic Nips. Now comes "Cavalcade of America" to picture for us at home the lighter, more human side of a struggle that is grim at its best.

Bob Hope, the comedian with a heart, will be starred on "Cavalcade of America," in "Report from the Pacific," over Station WAAF, Monday, at 7 p. m. The vehicle will be a script written by Glenn Wheaton, a past master at the art of capturing GI jargon, as displayed on such shows as "Command Performance." With Hope will be Frances Langford, the popular singer, and Jerry Colonna, famous for his funny songs and patter.

Navy "sky pilots," sea chaplains who carry the torch of spiritual worship into combat, braving enemy fire aboard ship and on invasions to give comfort and moral support to blue jackets and Marine fighters, will describe their war experiences as "sailors of God" to Parks Johnson and Warren Hull on the Vox Pop program from Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va., on Monday, at 7 p. m. over WABC.
