

er's Travels" Topic Program Saturday brilliant satire, "Gulliver's Travels," is the second University of the Air literature series, "The ls." It will be heard Saturday over WEAF at 6

"Gulliver's Travels" is Swift's most famous book. is one of the literary world's best models of style.

liver's account

work then de-

Lilliput, Brob-

nibarbi, Lugg-

NOVEMBER 21

—Subtract One
a. for MWT.

is listed due to
aka made too
orafe.

ect to change
eal broadcasts.

1. Variety—nbc

Dramatic—cbs

ome Prog.—blu

e Pacific—mbs

d, Drama—nbc

g & News—cbs

ge Quiz—blu

Half-Hr.—mbs

mily Skit—nbc

o Nation—cbs

Concert—blu

h Lopez—mbs

n London—nbc

m Detroit—cbs

nagg, Japan and Houynhnms. It is thru these travels that Swift expressed his own cynical regard for mankind.

Vivacious, effervescent Billie Burke, the fluttery farceur of countless hit films, will bow in on the Barry Wood-Patsy Kelly show over WEAF Saturday at 9 p. m.
This will mark the star's first guest engagement in some time.

Orchestra Leader Vaughn Monroe occupies the guest defective's armchair when Ellery Queen tackles the "Adventure of the Airport Disasters" Saturday over WEAF at 6:30 p. m.

With enemy agents plotting to wreck airplanes carrying important passengers, Ellery enters the case just in time to find that his father, Inspector Queen, faces death in one of the planes.