

ize Battle Story s At War' Program in which a dead English soldier returns to ask killed, will be dramatized on "Words at War" Lima time over WEAF. Ben Kagan, of the adapted the book, which was originally published le "Why Was I Killed?" ects the "Words at War" series, which is prewith the rttime.

Judy, and in the s Hallow-

ER 31

bstract One or MWT.

sted due to made too

to change broadcasts

Social-nbc
nama-cbs

h--blu-east

-other blu

-mus-basic

Mins-nbc

Time-cl s

-blu-basic

-other blu

War-mbs

Sports-nbc

entary-cbs

-blu-basic

-other blu

ctive-mbs

Period-cbs

een" develops into a first-class nightmare, on "A Date With Judy", Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., over Station WEAF. Judy, barred from the school's Halloween party for classroom shortcomings, enlists the aid of her fellow pupils to punish the teacher with a bagful of Halloween pranks. The violence starts just about as Father arrives at the teacher's house to ask for leniency for Judy.

No spooks are scheduled for Halloween on the Alan Young show Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., over WJZ. At least not as far as Alan knows.

But you never can tell what will happen, especially on Halloween when a Young enters politics and runs for chief of police on the Upright party ticket, proving his mettle by engaging in a running gun battle with a gang of hoodlums.

Bob Hope and his merry-men will invade the Roswell Army Air Base, N. M., for the broadcast Tuesday over WEAF at 9 p. m.
Along will go Frances Langford, Vera Vague, Jerry Colonna, Skin-nay Ennis and Jack Mather. Wendell Niles will be cut in from Hollywood.