

Ellery Queen Features Election Night Mystery

Norman Siegel, radio editor of the Cleveland Press and a syndicated radio columnist, will be the guest anchor detective for Ellery Queen's "The Adventure of the Election Day Murder" Saturday over WFAF at 6:30 p. m. Indiana time.

The mystery begins late on election night at the headquarters of a successful candidate with the Queens joining in the celebration. But tragedy strikes in an adjacent Turkish bath with Inspector Queen in somewhat of a jam and Nikki Porter a not too helpful assistant. Bright and sparkling as when he scored his sensational triumphs in "On Your Toes," "The Great Zugfeld" and "By Jigger." Ray Bolger will bring his twinkling toes and genial good humor to the Barry Wood-Patsy Kelly show over WFAF Saturday at 9 p. m. This special guest appearance marks Bolger's professional return after entertaining the armed forces in the South Pacific.

Joseph Wood Krutch, critic, author and professor, will be the commentator on "The World's Great Novels" when the program dramatizes the second of two episodes of Henry Fielding's "Tom Jones" Saturday over WFAF at 6 p. m.
