The comedy pair will disclose the latest developments in their search for tur-broadcast Friday, at 9 p. m. over broadcast Friday, at p. m. m., over Station WABC. Roy Bargy's orchestra and Vocalist Georgia Gibbs tend to the musical interludes.

RAB BARBUTI DISPLAYS SPEED AT CEYLON BASE

SOUTHEAST ASIA COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, Kandy, Ceylon, Nov. 17—(UP)—Capt. Raymond J. Barbuti, 400-meter champion in the 1928 Olympic Games, is now an intelligence officer with a B-25 (Mitchell) squadron of the "Earthquakers" bombardment group, but he is still fit enough to trim his squadron's crews in races around their Assam air base.

While his group was operating in North Africa, Capt. Barbuti, who is 39 years old, organized the "Eastern Desert Track Championship" and then coached the "Earthquakers" team into the championship against British and Austro-
