

Elsa Maxwell To On Charlie McC

Elsa Maxwell, rotund queen of many feasts, will have her tables turned next Sunday night when she will be singing with Frank Sinatra and Frank Sinatra's band at 7 p. m., Lima time, over WEAF. Elsa is a singing star on the half-hour show currently broadcast from New York's Radio City.

Symphony No. 7 in A Major and Leonore Overture No. 3, fifth concert of the nine-week Beethoven festival, which Arturo Toscanini is conducting on the Symphony of the Air. The program will be heard Sunday, over WEAF from 4 to 5 p. m.

A reel of film from Titanic Pictures' latest epic is missing and Producer Jim Lawton and Secretary Gloria Dean, the "Hollywood Mystery Time" sleuths, begin a hunt for the footage in "The Case of the Canned Film," on Sunday at 8:15 p. m., over Station WJZ. It might have been a gag but when an actress, whose only appearance in the film was on the stolen reel, is found murdered, the search turns into a grisly man hunt. Carleton Young and Gloria Blondell co-star as the movie-making detectives.

There's more than one way to kill a turkey, but William Bendix can't make any of them work, in his comedy drama, "The Life of Riley," over Station WJZ, Sunday, at 9 p. m. His daughter, Babs, appears as a Pilgrim girl in a school Thanksgiving play, and Riley is inspired to shoot his turkey in traditional style, rather than rely on his poultry dealer. The turkey shoot is a failure . . . but by then the poultry dealer cannot deliver a Thanksgiving gobbler, and Riley goes a-hunting again, with strange, unexpected results. Sharon Douglas
