

Featured Soloist Of Band Rejoins Kay Kyser Show

It will be reunion day for Kay Kyser's "College of Musical Knowledge," when Harry Babbitt, for nine years featured soloist with the band, rejoins the show for one broadcast, when the Ol' Professor and his outfit play the Naval Air station in Coronado, Cal., Wednesday, at 9 p. m., over Station WEAF. Babbitt, now wearing Navy blue, has been granted special permission to appear on the Kyser program when it visits his base.

Guy (sweetest music this side of Heaven) Lombardo will be another Dunninger guest judge on Wednesday, at 8 p. m., over Station WJZ. Other secret Brain Buster Judges are Kathleen Winsor, author of "Forever Amber," Victoria Cordova, singing star of "Saludos Amigos" and Fred Gehle, chairman of the New York Finance committee of the Treasury department.

Eddie Cantor sends personal greeting to families of Chicago's servicemen he met while on his Purple Heart tour during the broadcast of the "Eddie Cantor Show" from the Windy City, Wednesday at 8 p. m., over WEAF.

Joe Kelly, who replaces Harry Von Zell on the emcee spot for this broadcast only, encounters a bit of difficulty when he meets Mrs. Von Zell and baby, four weeks old, and is called on to judge a quiz contest between the baby and "Boris Tsoris," played by Bert Gordon.

There's many a cook whose dishes should mark her as a murder victim, but that's not the case with "Mr. and Mrs. North's" new Scandinavian cook, when "The North Surrender Smorgasbord" Wednesday at 7 p. m., over Station WEAF. The cook borrows Mrs. North's new coat and promptly gets it full of bullet holes and blood stains. Then, the question is whether the murderers intended to kill the cook or Pam. The Norths discover many interesting facts in their investigation. Alice Frost as Pam and Joseph Curtin as Jerry are "Mr. and Mrs. North."

65,548 UNDECIDED

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 — (UP)

— An official canvass by the board of elections revealed today that 65,548 New Yorkers, including many servicemen could not make up their minds on their presidential choice in the November elections, and left the space blank.

SPECIAL WAR BOND PREMIERE THURSDAY NITE NOV. 30TH AT 8:30

Bob Hope's Newest Hit

"THE PRINCESS AND THE PIRATE"

—ADM. BY BOND ONLY—

Buy Bonds At Warner Theatres Or Any Official Issuing Agent To Obtain Your Ticket!

WARNER BROS.

OHIO

Last 2 Days!

THE DOUGENIS

ENTIRE WEEK STARTING

Radio Guide