

Cantor Victim Of Lawsuit On Program Wednesday Night

Eddie Cantor starts out for the studio and ends up in court as defendant in a lawsuit instituted by emcee Harry Von Zell during the "Eddie Cantor Show" broadcast at 8 p. m., Lima time, Wednesday over WEAF. Seeking to prove that there really is a Santa Claus, "Mr. and Mrs. North" take their niece, Susan, to a department store, and find out they're wrong, when "The Norths Slay Santa Claus," in the mystery-comedy broadcast over station WEAF at 7 p. m. Wednesday.

With Kris Kringle a murder victim, the Norths launch an investigation which leads to some startling discoveries, including the fact that some Santa Clauses are not completely convinced that it's more blessed to give than receive. Joseph Curtin and Alice Frost are starred as "Mr. and Mrs. North."

Dorothy Parker, noted writer and wit, Vocalist Kay Lorraine and John J. Anthony, the man who answers those problems, will keep a watchful eye on "The Brain" when they are guests of Dunninger, the "Master Mentalist" at 8 p. m. Wednesday over station WJZ. Dunninger repeats his most bewildering "Brain Buster" by popular demand of fans who can't quite believe such wizardry is possible. He will allow his guests to take an unmarked deck of cards and shuffle them to their hearts' content, then nail the cards to a board with a large spike. Dunninger will then attempt to name the suit and value of as many cards as the judges desire. The cards will be torn off the spike in confirmation.

FORMER CASE SCHOOL OFFICER DIES AT 86

CLEVELAND, Dec. 20—(INS)—Dr. Eckstein Case, for 50 years secretary-treasurer of the Case School of Applied Science in Cleveland, died at his home early today after a long illness. He was 86.

Born in Carlyle, Ill., the educator was a member of the 1850 class at the United States Military Academy. He received his bachelor of laws degree from the University of Michigan in 1884, and after being admitted to the Ohio bar, practiced in Cleveland.

Dr. Case first became connected with the school, endowed by a cousin, in 1887 and served until his retirement in 1937. He also was active in other educational and civic affairs.

Survivors include two nephews, Warren Case of Toledo, and Dr. Leonard C. Scott, of New Orleans, La., and a niece, Miss Mary Case of Toledo.

Altho funeral plans were not completed, burial was set to be held in Carlyle.
