sion, Thursday, at 9 p. m., over Station WEA. "just bought a circus and found that his star baboon couldn't appear on opening day because of a stomachache." "Say," cracks Bud without a blush, "he must have blown his big top!" They discuss other allied matters, too, pausing only for the musical high spots of Songstress Connie Haines and the music of Freddie Rich's orchestra.

A "doctor," his hands covered with blood, drives into one of Hollywood's outdoor restaurants and offers a car-hop a ride home, in "Drive-In," Mel Dinelli's unusual story which features Nancy Kelly as the waitress, on "Suspense," Thursday at 7 p. m., over Station WABC. Instead of taking her home, the "doctor" drives the girl into the hills and informs her that she is about to be murdered. Following that terrifying statement, the story develops to a strange, surprising climax.
