

Radio Tribute To George Washington On Monday

One of the earliest and most desperate crises in the history of the United States is spotlighted in "Washington and the Traitor," WEAF's "Cavalcade of America" broadcast for Monday at 7 p. m. Lima time. Herbert Marshall plays the great president.

The "show me" stage of naval aircraft development, where designers' dreams have nightmares; where "can do" claims for new planes, armament and radio equipment are tested to the limits possible this side of the fighting fronts, is the setting for the Vox Pop broadcast from the U. S. Naval Air Station, Patuxent River, Maryland, on Monday at 9 p. m. over WABC.

The original screen cast of stars, Anne Baxter, John Hodiak and Charles Winninger, will feature in the Radio Theatre version of the touching new movie, "Sunday Dinner for a Soldier," Monday. The full-hour dramatic show is aired regularly Monday nights at 5 p. m. over WABC.

The gallant convalescents of the Navy will be able to puff their troubles away when Bob Hawk sends them duffel bags filled to the brim with cigarets during his "Thanks to the Yanks" broadcast over WABC Monday at 6:30 p. m. The smokes go to the U. S. Naval Hospital, Parris Island, South Carolina, and the U. S. Naval Convalescent Hospital, Glenwood Springs, Colo.
