

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS.

- 10:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "What Should Be the Debt Limit of the United States?" Participants: Prof. Neil H. Jacoby, Bentley G. McCloud, and Prof. Herbert Dougall.
- 12:15 p. m.—WMAQ—America United: George Meany of AFL discusses "Wage Polcy."
- 12:30—W-G-N—Victory Is Our Business: Interview with Sara Snerud, former Red Cross recreation worker in overseas area.
- 12:30—WMAQ—University of Chicago Round Table: "Mexico City: Prelude to San Francisco?" Participants: Sen. Austin [R., Vt.], Prof. R. Walter Johnson, and James B. Reston.
- 12:45—W-G-N—Talk by Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen, newly appointed health editor of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.
- 1:30—W-G-N—Distinguished Guest hour: Joseph E. Ragen, warden of Stateville.
- 3:00—W-G-N—Your America presents story of Larry Adler's U. S. O. tour.
- 4:00—W-G-N—Let's Face the Issue: Debate and discussion.
- 5:00—WGNB—Chicago Theater of the Air. Talks by Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, and Henry Weber, musical director of W-G-N. Rebroadcast of "Eileen," starring Marlon Claire.
- 8:00—W-G-N—Steel Horizons. Speaker: Paul V. McNutt.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA.

- 11:00 a. m.—W-G-N—Uncle Harold Isbell reads The Chicago Tribune comics.
- 1:00 p. m.—W-G-N—Sweetheart Time: New show, with Marlon Mann, soprano, and Phil Kalar, baritone, singing tunes requested by listeners. Guest: Tommy Wonder, who will appear in dramatic portion of program.
- 2:00—WMAQ—World Parade, with Phil Kinsman, baritone; Max Hall, commentator, and Lou Breese's orchestra.
- 2:05—W-G-N—1,001 Tales in Music, featuring Young People's Symphony, with Claudia Cassidy, music critic of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, as narrator.
- 2:30—W-G-N—Radio Players' Theater: "Gone to the Dogs."
- 3:30—WENR—Andrews Sisters Show. Guest: Jerry Colonna.
- 5:00—WENR—Hall of Fame. Guests: Vic and Sade, Claude Rains, Jay C. Filppen, Chico Marx, Evelyn Knight, and Herman Chittson trio.
- 6:00—WMAQ—Jack Benny, with Rochester, Mary Livingston, Larry Stevens.
- 6:30—WENR—Quiz Kids: Patrick Conlon, Joel Kupperman, Harve Fischman, and Richard Williams match wits with Sen. Burton [R., O.], Sen. Hatch [D., N. M.], Sen. Hart [R., Conn.], and Sen. Ball [R., Minn.]. Supreme Court Justice Douglas will judge the special quiz.
- 7:00—WMAQ—Bergen-McCarthy Show, with Maria Montez as a guest.
- 7:30—WMAQ—Eddie Bracken, with Ann Rutherford, Janet Waldo.
- 9:00—W-G-N—Earl Wilson welcomes Frank Sinatra as a guest.
- 9:15—W-G-N—Helen Hayes program dramatizes story of Lt. Thoreso Archard, army nurse.
- 9:30—W-G-N—Mystery House presents "Hotter Than Hades."
- 9:30—WMAQ—Harold Lloyd's Comedy Theater features Gene Tierney and Randolph Scott in "A Lady Takes a Chance."
- 11:30—WENR—Yanks in the Orient, with Maj. Gen. George E. Stratemyer and five WACs as guests.

MUSIC.

- 9:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Something for the Girls, with Jane Froman, Celeste Holm, Jack Smith, Bert Lytell, and Raymond Paige's orchestra.
- 2:00 p. m.—WBBM—New York Philharmonic orchestra, directed by George Szell, Soloist: Joseph Szigeti, who will play Prokofieff's Violin Concerto in D major and Beethoven's Romance for Violin and Orchestra in G major. Orchestra to offer Schumann's Symphony No. 4 in D minor and Wagner's Prelude to "Die Meistersinger."
- 3:30—WMAQ—Music America Loves Best, with Tommy Dorsey, the Phil Moore Four, instrumental group, and Milena Miller, soprano.
- 4:00—WMAQ—NBC Symphony orchestra, with Arturo Toscanini conducting presentations of Schumann's Symphony No. 3 in E flat major, Mendelssohn's Scherzo in G minor, and George Gershwin's "An American in Paris."
- 6:05—WGNB—Cleveland Symphony, with Vladimir Golschmann as guest conductor, features Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 in A minor. On W-G-N at midnight.
- 6:30—WMAQ—Bandwagon, with Horace Heldt and his orchestra.
- 8:30—WBBM—Lawrence Tibbett, with Jane Froman and Alec Templeton.
- 9:00—WMAQ—Hour of Charm: Phil Spitalny's all-girl orchestra.

Gene Tierney will co-star with Randolph Scott in "A Lady Takes a Chance" on Comedy theater over WMAQ-NBC at 9:30 o'clock tonight.